

MORE BRILLIANT OFFICIAL FUNCTIONS SCHEDULED

Round of Receptions For Brazilian Officers, Most Recent Visitors

Blounts Return to 'The Oaks'

THE temporary lull in social gayeties which has followed the brilliance of last week will be of short duration. Another detachment of distinguished foreign officers, the Brazilians, arrived today, and a succession of dinners and receptions will begin in their honor tomorrow, to last through the week.

They will be received by the President tomorrow afternoon, and this will be followed by dinners by the Brazilian ambassador and the Secretary of State.

The officers of the party are Rear Admiral Duart Huet de Baellar, commander of the fleet; Capt. Cavalcanti de Lins, of the Riachuelo; Capt. Pereira Leite, of the Barroso; captain of frigate, Altino Correa, of the Tamoyo, and three lieutenants of the admiral's staff.

Equal gayeties are taking place in the Jamestown region, where the chief entertainments are dinners and balls on the various cruisers and vessels lying there in official state. Last evening was an especially gala time.

The Duke of the Abruzzi, Prince of Savoy-Aosta, was the guest of honor on the Chilean cruiser Zenteno; and Gen. Baron Buroki, of the Japanese army, was the guest of honor at a dinner given in the Hotel Chamberlain at Old Point Comfort, by the president of the Jamestown exposition, and Mrs. Henry St. George Tucker. Gen. Frederick Dent Grant will be host at a large banquet tomorrow evening in honor of General Kuroki.

In the afternoon the officers of the Italian fleet, headed by the Duke of the Abruzzi, will hold a large reception on board their flagship, the Varese, which was the scene yesterday afternoon of a charming ball.

Miss Butler Entertains Married to Mr. Heald At Luncheon For Guest

Miss Marcia Flagg Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Butler, and Edward Cresswell Heald were married at noon today in the home of the bride's parents, 1535 I street, by the Rev. Dr. William P. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Yonkers, N. Y.

The house was tastefully decorated with palms and cut flowers, and the ceremony took place in the drawing room. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Butler's gown was of white satin and Venetian lace, made princess with a long train, and she wore a tulle veil arranged with a wreath of orange blossoms.

Miss Katherine Heald, sister of the bridegroom, acted as maid of honor, and wore a dainty frock of pale pink silk mull, and carried a shower bouquet of pale pink roses.

Miss Langdon Bellows, Miss Elizabeth Hubbard, and Miss Caroline Brown, all of Yonkers, N. Y., were the bridesmaids. They wore gowns of plain white tulle over shell pink tulle and carried Killarney roses.

Mr. Heald has as his best man Henry Wilder Healy, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and the ushers were John Flannery, Charles F. Wilson, Ethan Flagg Butler, Charles Marshall Butler, brothers of the bride, Andrew Y. Bradley, and Charles H. Bradley.

Only a small family party was present at the ceremony, which was followed by a reception and wedding breakfast for the bride's party.

Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Heald left Washington for their wedding trip, and will return to their residence in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Butler, parents of the bride, will sail May 25, for Europe for an indefinite stay, going first to The Hague.

Following the naval display at Hampton Roads yesterday the Atlantic fleet has broken up and will not be reassembled again until June 8, when the ships will take up their positions off Old Point Comfort to welcome the arrival of the President on the Mayflower on the morning of June 10, when he will be the orator of the day at the celebration of Georgia Day at the Jamestown Exposition.

The Maine was the first to raise anchor, having cleared the Cape last night, according to advices received from the fleet at the Navy department today. The Connecticut, with the Commander-in-Chief aboard, and the Louisiana and Missouri have followed. The other ships of the fleet, the Alabama, Illinois, Kentucky, and Kearsarge, will follow within the next few days. Admiral Davis will remain at Hampton Roads to entertain the Brazilian and Chilean squadrons.

Nearly all the battleships that are leaving Hampton Roads at this time will go to New York to go into dock for repairs and to give the men shore liberty. The cruisers and torpedo boats will be sent to the yards at Norfolk and League Islands. It is hoped by officials of the Navy Department to have most of them out in time to participate in the exercises in Hampton Roads June 10. That will be the last big function at which the navy will take important part during the exposition so far as arranged as present.

Church, of Brooklyn, the minister secured by Corey after his vain hunt for an Episcopal minister to marry him, performed the ceremony. It was noticeable that there was no music for the occasion.

Miss Frances Erskine Shaw, who accompanied Miss Gilman from Europe, was her only attendant at the wedding. Standing under a floral illuminated wedding bell, in a room lavishly decorated with smilax, fern, white carnations, and American Beauty roses, Corey and the former actress exchanged vows. Only a brief time was allowed for congratulations before Mrs. Corey went to her room to dress for her trip to the steamer.

Previous to the hour of the dinner both Corey and Miss Gilman had kept to themselves. None of the guests saw them until they met the couple in the reception room. In the strangely inverted order of the wedding the health of the bride and bridegroom was drunk before they had been married.

Fifty minutes after they had been pronounced man and wife Mr. and Mrs. Corey left the hotel to start for the steamer.

She is now under the care of a nurse again, with every prospect of an early mending. The minister will return from South Carolina this week.

Miss Cameron Wins S. of R. Essay Medal

Four Other Competitors All Commended for Their Work.

Miss Myrtle Cameron, a member of the graduating class of the McKinley Manual Training School, is the successful competitor for the bronze medal and prize of $10 in gold which was offered by the District of Columbia Society of the Sons of the Revolution for the best essay on "Did Lee's Conduct at Monmouth Justify His Removal by Washington?"

Miss Cameron was one of the five students of the high schools to which the contest was limited, whose essays were regarded to be of unusual merit, and, in the opinion of the committee which made the selection, it was difficult to determine which was the best.

The medal and $10 gold piece will be presented to Miss Cameron at the commencement exercises of the school on June 13.

All Essays Good.

Five essays, signed by the writers with pseudonyms, were sent to the society, and its president, F. W. Hildreth, appointed three members, J. Kennedy Stout, John B. Chaddock, and Cazenove G. Lee, a committee to award the prize. In its report, after a general commendation of the essays for their neatness and evidences of study, the committee said:

"We have agreed to award the prize to the one using the pen name of 'Graeme Douglas,' with 'Jack Charles' so close a second that honorable mention does not do full justice to his merit. 'Colonel' excelled in smoothness of diction and literary style, and 'Nellie Curtis' and 'Mildred E. Lewis' were in scholarly and able written studies of the subject."

When this report was filed with him, Dr. Marcus Benjamin, the secretary of the society, opened the sealed envelopes which contained the real names of the five contestants, and reported that they were: "Graeme Douglas," Miss Myrtle Cameron, of the McKinley Manual Training School; "Jack Charles," John Noyes, of the Central High School; "Colonel," Miss Emily L. Sprightly, of the Central High School; "Nellie Curtis," Miss Elizabeth P. Defandorf, of the Eastern High School; and "Mildred E. Lewis," Miss Augusta P. Martin, of the Central High School.

He added: "The prize is therefore awarded to Miss Myrtle Cameron, with honorable mention of Mr. Noyes; special commendation of Miss Sprightly, and praise of Misses Defandorf and Martin."

The society has ordered the medal, with an appropriate inscription.

All Commended.

The building committee of Immanuel Baptist Church, Percy S. Foster, chairman, has selected the plans presented by George W. Stone and F. W. Averill in competition and has commissioned them to proceed with the work of completing the drawings.

The church, which is to be erected on the northeast corner of Sixteenth street and Columbia road, Columbia Heights, will be constructed of Port Deposit unglazed granite, and from its commanding position has furnished the architects with a splendid opportunity of designing an edifice which will present a stately and dignified appearance from every viewpoint.

The church will have a seating capacity of 750 in the main auditorium, and by a convenient arrangement by which the entire first floor can be thrown into one room provides 350 additional seats through the use of the Sunday school room.

It is intended to have the tower on the corner of the building, making it a feature of the architecture especially distinctive and imposing.

REOPEN HEARING ON BROWNSVILLE; NOT A WITNESS

Foraker Believed to Be Ready to "Deliver The Goods."

After a six weeks' recess the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, having the Brownsville affair of last August under consideration, reconvened at the Capitol this morning.

Absent witnesses necessitated an adjournment immediately after the committee was called to order by Chairman Warren.

The committee will meet again tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. It is understood that Senator Foraker, who is championing the cause of the discharged Twenty-fifth Infantry (colored), will "deliver the goods" this week. Many witnesses have been called and examined by the Ohioan, and much that was new brought out by his rigorous cross-examination, but he declares he will get the true story from the men from Brownsville, who are to testify throughout the remainder of the inquiry.

Senator Warner, who appears to have been assigned to take charge of the prosecution, will also call a number of witnesses. Most of them will be citizens of Brownsville, who are expected to testify as to the feeling toward the colored troops and the conduct of citizens during the night of August 13, when the Texas town was "shot up."

Senators Warren, Overman, Frazier, Pettus, Foraker, and Warner were present when the committee met this morning.

W. R. Warman Promoted.

W. R. Warman, rodman in the sewer division, has been promoted from $750 to a foreman at $1,200, vice S. J. Gass, resigned, the appointment to take effect at once.

GERMS IN THE SKIN

SCIENCE IN PURSUIT

Eczema Sufferers will be interested in a Pamphlet on Diet, Exercise, Etc., which may be had Free at Henry Evans and People's Pharmacy.

The eczema germ is a curious parasite. Scientists accustomed to the daily use of the microscope find difficulty in detecting it.

The germ lives only in the skin, and multiplies where the skin is weak and susceptible. It feeds on the oily substances, developing at the rate of thousands and tens of thousands daily. Nature combats them, but if the skin is weak the germs must be destroyed by an external remedy.

Oil of wintergreen properly mixed with other soothing ingredients is the best remedy yet found for all kinds of skin trouble. But oil of wintergreen alone will not suffice, and it is only when properly combined—as in D. D. D. Prescription—has it the power to really cure while INSTANTLY relieving the itch.

I wish to thank the wonderful cure that the D. D. D. Prescription did for my baby boy that had eczema," says Mrs. A. L. Workman, of No. 3 Wights Add., Trinidad, Col. "We bought one bottle after using the trial bottle and he has been cured for three months or more and no symptoms of it coming back."

D. D. D. Prescription is a mild soothing liquid made for a number of years by a Chicago company. It is no ordinary patent medicine and we thoroughly investigated the merits of the remedy before recommending it to people in our own town. Henry Evans and People's Pharmacy. Call at our store and we shall be glad to show you a bottle of the remedy, and no matter whether you buy the remedy, we will be glad to give you a pamphlet free of charge, this pamphlet telling about the diet, exercise, clothing and other treatment required for skin sufferers.

COREY SAILS, WISHING ALL "GOOD LUCK"

NEW YORK, May 14.—William E. Corey, head of the Steel Trust, and his bride, formerly Margaret Gilman, the actress, are today upon the high seas, bound for France, where they will spend their honeymoon in the chateau, on the outskirts of Paris, which Corey presented to his second wife, Margaret, as a wedding gift. The ceremony was performed in the royal suite of the Hotel Gotham shortly after midnight, Mr. and Mrs. Corey were hurried away to the pier to catch the Kaiser Wilhelm II, which sailed shortly after 7 o'clock today. At the pier Corey flew into a rage with the press men. His wife's quiet words recalled him, however, and he said good-bye with a final benediction. "I wish you and all the people of New York the best of good luck."

Rages at Photographers. Two photographers, who were prepared to take a snapshot of the Coreys as they left their electric carriage, aroused the bridegroom's ire. He turned fiercely on them, threatening to break the cameras if they were used. Mrs. Corey stopped the explosion and the couple entered the pier.

At the gang plank a crowd of reporters was waiting. Corey turned on the group, saying, "Well, gentlemen, what is it? What new horror do you spring upon me? It is useless to ask me to make any statement. I have nothing to say. You gentlemen should be ashamed to ask me to speak after all the unkind things that have been printed about me."

Bride Calms Him. Again, by a touch on his arm, the bride recalled Corey to good humor. Turning to the news gatherers, he said, with a smile: "While we appreciate the fond solicitude of you boys, we have nothing to say."

"Positively nothing," chimed in the bride. Then they ascended the gang plank. Corey stopped long enough to wish everyone "good luck," and then disappeared.

The wedding was elaborate in every way, although attended only by the closest relatives and intimate friends. A wedding dinner preceded the ceremony. This delayed the marriage until after midnight. But, to cast a gloom over Corey's complete happiness, it is said, he received a telegram last night from his son, a nineteen-year-old boy, whom he loves next to his new wife, declining to desert his mother and become the first Corey to live with his father and Mrs. Corey No. 2.
